Flex Pocket: Stay on the move with your business

Where you go, your business goes.

Add a new level of convenience with the Clover Flex Pocket. It's designed to be mobile, lightweight, and fits right into your back pocket or apron. Flex Pocket delivers the Flex functionality you know and love in a lighter, more portable form so that it's even easier to carry and provide tableside service.

Lightweight design

Flex Pocket is 25% lighter than previous Flex models, so it's easy to carry during long days

Tableside service

Device in hand, servers can fire orders directly from the table, scan barcodes and QR codes, add order notes, and send receipts through email or SMS

User-friendly interface

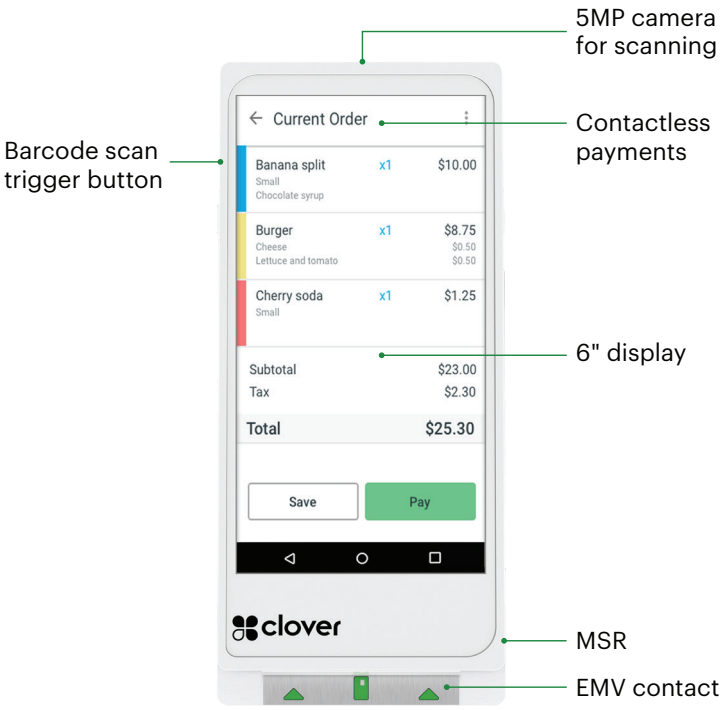

Simple, intuitive workflows all employees can follow

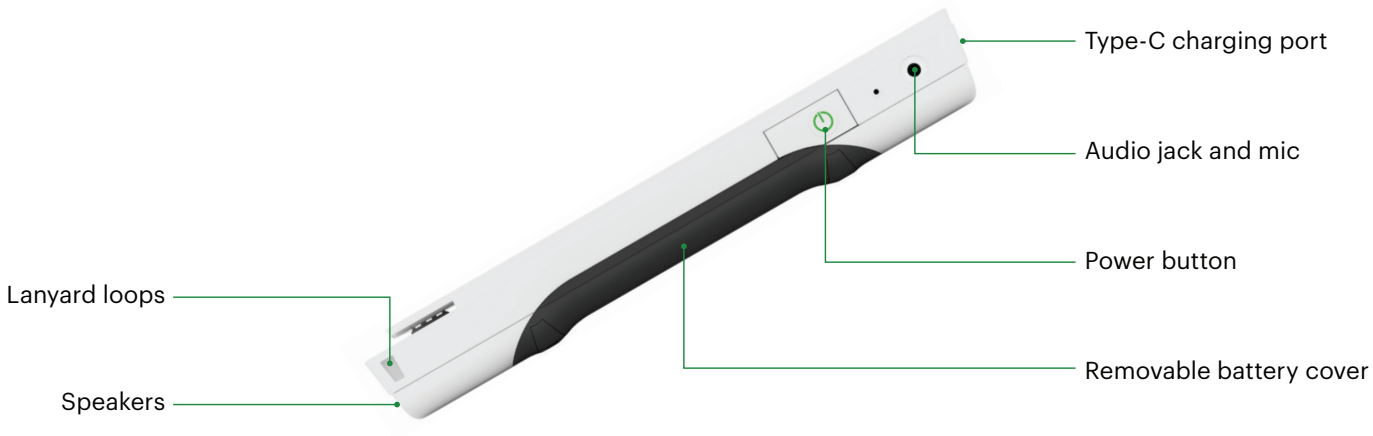

Quick payments

Customers can pay in any way, including debit, credit, tap, insert or swipe

A Clover ecosystem

Flex Pocket seamlessly syncs with any other Clover POS devices and back-end systems
